KIDO Radio and the D&B Garden Show talk about fire and the wildland/urban interface

By idahoofirewise | June 26, 2017 | 15 •

The D&B Garden Show broadcast on KIDO Radio recently featured a fun hour-long chat about fire and the wildfire season. Guests included Idaho BLM's Jill Axten, CDF's Dave Caudle, Wildland Fire Management's Mark Kaziak, and Boise's Kim Brown. The show is available for listening at idahoofirewise.com and the D&B Garden Show Facebook page.

The interview starts with a description of the urban/wildland interface and goes on to discuss strategies to protect homes and businesses as well as deer gardens, ways to protect and define fencelines and landscapes from wildfire.
